

School of Engineering-Technology-Trades/ Minerva Canada Safety Forum
May 17, 2016
Conestoga College Cambridge Campus, Room A1203
AGENDA

| 8:00 am | BREAKFAST (Registration / Networking) | Breakfast served |
|-----------------|---|--|
| 8:40 am | Welcoming / Opening Remarks | Julia Biedermann Dean Engineering-Technology-Trades-IFPT |
| 8:45 am | Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives | Tony Pasteris President, Minerva |
| 9:00 am | Importance of Health and Safety Education and Current Issues – Regulatory Perspective | Olivera Terzic, Program Consultant Training and Safety Programs Branch, Ontario Ministry of Labour Prevention Office |
| 9:45 am | BREAK | Refreshments served |
| 10:00 am | Business Case for Health and Safety and What it takes to Excel, Create the Right Culture | Brian R. Tossan Director, GM Canadian Engineering Centre |
| 11:00 am | Using Minerva Teaching Modules and Online Modules: Process Safety Management | Dr. Graeme Norval, University of Toronto |
| 12:00 pm | LUNCH | Lunch Served |
| 1:00 pm | Using Minerva Teaching Modules and Online Modules: Engineering Ethics & Public Safety | Leonnie Kavanagh University of Manitoba |
| 2:00 pm | What's Missing in Health and Safety Education – perspective from Recent Graduate | Connor Olsen – Graduate of Mechanical Systems Engineering |
| 2:30 pm | BREAK | Refreshments served |
| 2:45 pm | Using Minerva Teaching Modules and Online Modules: Robotics Safety | Jim Van Kessel |
| 3:30 pm | Panel Discussion -Teaching Health and Safety in Curriculum – Challenges, Opportunities, and Next Steps Facilitated by Dr. Graeme Norval | Jim Galloway, Dusan Klaric, Connor Olsen, Kirill Kapuka, Janet Mannella, Jim Van Kessel |
| 4:15 pm | Closing Remarks | Tony Pasteris President, Minerva |
| 4:30 pm | Adjournment/ Optional Tour of Cambridge Campus | Mitch Wawzonek |