

Carleton University-MINERVA Canada Safety Forum

Thursday, May 4th, 2017

Carleton University

Richcraft Hall (River Building), 2nd floor,

Conference rooms 2220 - 2228

1125 Colonel By Drive

OTTAWA ON K1S 5B6

Carleton
UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Engineering and Design

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00	Registration / Networking / Breakfast
8:30	Welcoming / Opening Remarks	Dr. Richard Dansereau / Associate Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Design
8:45	Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives	Tony Pasteris, President, Minerva Canada
9:00	Importance of Health and safety education and current issues – regulatory perspective	George Gritzotis, Chief Prevention Officer, Ontario Ministry of Labour
9:45	Break	Refreshments served
10:00	Business Perspectives for Incorporating Safety into Engineering Team Design and Establishing the Right Safety Culture	John Stroyan, , General Motors Company, GPD/CCA/ Non-Manufacturing Global Workplace Safety Manager
11:00	Introduction to Minerva Teaching Modules .Quantitative Risk Assessment Module	Tony Pasteris – Minerva Graeme Norval, University of Toronto)
12:15	Break	Luncheon served
1:15	Workshop on Public Safety and Engineering Ethics - Process Safety Management - Teaching Engineering Ethics - Responsible Care in the Chemical Industry Facilitated by Peter Sturm, VP Minerva Canada	Nina Mankovitz, General Manager Health and Safety, Canada Post Graeme Norval – University of Toronto Luc Robitaille, VP Responsible Care, Chemistry Industry Association of Canada
2:45	Break	Refreshments served
3:00	WorkSmart Campus - 2017 version	Graeme Norval
3:20	Panel Discussion - Incorporating H&S matters throughout Curriculum – challenges, opportunities, next steps	Facilitated by Graeme Norval Frank Saunders, VP Bruce Power; Steve MacDonald, Ontario Ministry of Labour; Syed Ahmed, Imperial Oil; John Stroyan GM, Prof Donald Russel, Associate Dean
4:15	Closing Remarks	Tony Pasteris, Minerva and Prof Donald Russell
4:30	Adjournment
5:00	Reception and Minerva Awards Dinner hosted by Minerva Canada	Dinner Guest Speaker: Senator Tony Dean – Senate of Canada