

University of Regina-MINERVA Canada Safety Forum

Tuesday, April 25, 2017

University of Regina, 3737 Wascana Parkway, Regina, Saskatchewan
Education Building (ED) Room 616

Time	Topic
8:00	Registration / Networking / Breakfast
8:30	Welcome / Opening Remarks - Esam Hussein , Dean, University of Regina Faculty of Engineering & Applied Science
8:45	Introduction to Minerva and Forum Objectives - Tony Pasteris , Minerva
9:00	Importance of Injury Prevention Education & Current Issues: A Cultural Perspective in Saskatchewan – Gord Moker , CEO, Safe Saskatchewan
9:45	Break
10:00	Creating a Health and Safety Culture in Academia and Industry - Gord Winkel , Director, Dave and Joan Lynch School of Engineering Safety and Risk Management, University of Alberta; Former VP Syncrude Canada
10:45	Introduction to Minerva Teaching Modules and Case Studies – Tony Pasteris & Peter Sturm , Minerva; Doug Ruth , Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Dean Emeritus, University of Manitoba <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Safety Management Systems and Leadership ▪ Safety in Team Design ▪ WorkSmart Campus ▪ Mental Health (preview)
11:45	Lunch and Poster Viewing
1:00	Panel Discussion – facilitated by Peter Sturm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Esam Hussein ▪ Gord Winkel ▪ Doug Ruth ▪ Rob Stables, Consultant, Great Dane Engineering; University of Regina Industrial Systems Engineering alumnus ▪ Nick Lorenzen, Project Coordinator, Graham Construction; University of Regina Industrial Systems Engineering alumnus
2:15	Break
2:30	Occupational Health and Safety Law: What Academics Need to Know – Tavengwa Runyowa , Runyowa Law
3:30	Integrating Health and Safety into Curriculum at the University of Manitoba: CEAB Attributes and Impact on Health and Safety – Doug Ruth
4:15	Closing Remarks
4:30	Adjournment