

Carleton University-MINERVA Canada Safety Forum

Thursday, May 4th, 2017

Carleton University
Richcraft Hall (River Building), 2nd floor,
Conference rooms 2220 - 2228
1125 Colonel By Drive
OTTAWA ON K1S 5B6

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00	Registration / Networking / Breakfast
8:30	Welcoming / Opening Remarks	Dr. Fred Afagh / Acting Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Design
8:45	Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives	Tony Pasteris, President, Minerva Canada
9:00	Importance of Health and safety education and current issues – regulatory perspective	George Gritziotis, Senior Prevention Officer, Ontario Ministry of Labour
9:45	Break	Refreshments served
10:00	Business Perspectives for Incorporating Safety into Engineering Team Design and Establishing the Right Safety Culture	John Stroyan, General Motors Company, GPD/CCA/ Non-Manufacturing Global Workplace Safety Manager
11:00	Introduction to Minerva Teaching Modules .Quantitative Risk Assessment Module	Graeme Norval, University of Toronto)
12:15	Break	Luncheon served
1:15	Workshop on Public Safety and Engineering Ethics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Responsible Care in the Chemical Industry - Process Safety Management - Teaching Engineering Ethics Facilitated by Peter Sturm, VP Minerva Canada	Bob Masterson, CEO, Chemistry Industry Association of Canada Nina Mankovitz, General Manager Health and Safety, Canada Post Graeme Norval – University of Toronto
2:45	Break	Refreshments served
3:00	What's missing in H&S education – perspective from recent grad student	TBC
3:20	Panel Discussion - Incorporating H&S matters throughout Curriculum – challenges, opportunities, next steps	Facilitated by Graeme Norval Frank Saunders – VP, Bruce Power John Stroyan – General Motors Company Professors, students, industry representatives (TBD)
4:15	Closing Remarks	Tony Pasteris, Minerva and Prof Donald Russell, Associate Dean of Engineering and Design
4:30	Adjournment
5:30	Reception and Minerva Awards Dinner hosted by Minerva Canada	Dinner Guest Speaker: Senator Tony Dean – Senate of Canada