

Minerva Canada - University of Ottawa LEARNING FORUM 2014
 800 King Edward - University of Ottawa - SITE Building room A0150
 Ottawa, Ontario, K1N 6N5
Date: 19 June 2014
Time: 8:00 to 17:00

Time	Topic	By
8:00 AM	FORUM REGISTRATION + Muffin/Coffee/Tea/Fruits	uOttawa Staff
8:30 AM	Welcoming Remarks Introduction to Minerva, Institute objectives and themes	Claude Lague, Engineering Dean, uOttawa Tony Pasteris, President, Minerva Canada
Theme A. Industry's Perspective on the Necessary Safety Management Attributes of Engineering Graduates
8:45 AM	Industry 1. "Responsible Care - A Global Initiative"	Bob Masterson, Vice President Responsible Care, Chemistry Industry Association of Canada
9:30 AM	Industry 2. "Process Safety Management"	Carl Yank, Director Sodium Chlorite Business, ERCO Worldwide
10:15 AM	Coffee Break
10:45 AM	Industry 3. "What industry taught me and what I would have wished for in my education"	Luke Kittmer, Process Safety Engineer, CF Industries
Theme B. CEAB Expectations for Engineering Graduates - Response to Industry's Perspective
11:30 AM	CEAB Expectations for Engineering Graduates	Dan Candido, Engineers Canada / Ingénieurs Canada
12:15 PM	Lunch Break	Jazzy Restaurant - 85 University Center
1:30 PM	Industry 4. "Organization's safety culture to advance excellence in EHS performance"	Nina Mankovitz, General Manager - Occupational Health & Safety, Canada Post
Theme C. Minerva Safety Management Education - Teaching Aids to Help Prepare Students for the Workplace
2:15 PM	Minerva H&S Teaching Modules Initiative. Current available H&S Teaching Resource materials including Work Smart Campus	Tony Pasteris, President, Minerva Canada Graeme Norval, Professor, University of Toronto.
3:00 PM	Coffee Break
3:30 PM	Panel Discussion: Integrating Health and Safety into the Engineering Curriculum and Culture. Where do we go from here?	Panel: Industry speakers, CEAB and Minerva Canada representatives Moderators: Drs. Graeme Norval, Arturo Macchi, David Taylor
4:30 PM	Closing Remarks	Tony Pasteris, President Minerva Canada