

British Columbia Institute of Technology-Minerva Canada Safety Forum

BCIT Downtown Campus, 555 Seymour Street, Room 825

June 15, 2017

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00 am	Registration/Networking/Breakfast
8:30 am	Welcoming/Opening Remarks.	Wayne Hand, Dean, School of Construction & the Environment
8:45 am	Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives.	Tony Pasteris, President Minerva Canada
9:00 am	A regulatory perspective of Health and Safety education in the curriculum and the importance to the construction trades in BC.	Dale Walker, VP WorkSafeBC
9:45 am	Morning Break	Refreshments served
10:00 am	Leadership & Safety Culture; Learnings from research and hazard assessments for safety technical systems.	BC Safety Authority representatives Sue Gagne, VP Human Resources & Ab van Poortvilet, VP Data Analytics & Decision Science
11:00 am	Minerva H&S student teaching modules – introduction on content and use.	Tony Pasteris Graeme Norval – Univ. Toronto
12:15 pm	Lunch Break	Lunch served
1:15 pm	Management Systems and Leadership.	PCL Construction rep. Lou Metcalf – Safety Management Systems
2:00 pm	Using Minerva Teaching Modules and Online Modules in the classroom: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Quantitative Risk Assessment</li> <li>- Field Safety Considerations</li> </ul>	Graeme Norval – Univ. Toronto
2:45 pm	Afternoon Break	Refreshments served
3:00 pm	What's missing in H&S education – a perspective from recent BCIT graduates.	Fraser River Pile & Dredge & recent grads from BCIT's Civil Engineering program, Raveen Kang & Mike Sheffer.
3:30 pm	Panel discussion – Teaching Health & Safety in the Curriculum – challenges, opportunities, next steps.	Facilitated by Graeme Norval, this panel will include BCIT Steel Trades Instructor Ryan Downey, Civil Engineering grads Raveen Kang & Mike Sheffer, & industry representatives Lou Metcalf from PCL, & Peter Durrad from Seaspan
4:15 pm	Closing remarks	Tony Pasteris, Minerva & Dave Rutherford, Assoc. Dean BCIT
4:30 pm	Adjournment	