

University of Toronto - MINERVA Canada Learning Forum

Wednesday, May 29, 2024

University of Toronto, Wallberg Memorial Building, Room WB 130

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00	Registration / Networking / Breakfast
8:30	Welcoming / Opening Remarks	Dawn Kilkenny, Vice Dean, Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, University of Toronto
8:50	Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives	Larry Masotti, President, Minerva Canada Safety Management Education
9:10	Importance of Health & Safety education & current issues, A regulatory perspective	Dr. Joel Moody, Chief Prevention Officer & Assistant Deputy Minister, Ministry of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development
9:30	Introduction: Minerva Health & Safety Modules	Tony Pasteris, Past President, Minerva Canada Safety Management Education
9:50	Break	Refreshments served
10:30	Business Case for Health and Safety – What it takes to create and excel with the right safety culture!	Verna Perdon, Mental Health & Psychological Safety Specialist, Modern Niagara Group
11:00	Minerva H&S student teaching modules – Introduction on content and usage	Ariel Chan, Associate Professor, Teaching Stream, University of Toronto Bill Hawryschuk, Professor, School of Construction, Management and Trades, George Brown College
12:00	Break	Luncheon served
1:00	Mental Health in Academia & the Workplace	Verna Perdon, Mental Health & Psychological Safety Specialist, Modern Niagara Group
1:45	The Obligation of a Professional Engineer and the intersection of Occupational Health, Safety and Wellness.	Sandro Perruzza, Chief Executive Officer, Ontario Society of Professional Engineers
2:45	Break	Refreshments served
3:00	What's missing in H&S education – A perspective from recent graduate student...	Graduate students from University of Toronto
3:20	Panel Discussion -Teaching H&S in Curriculum – challenges, opportunities, next steps	Professor Daniela Galatro, Chemical Engineering and Applied Chemistry, University of Toronto Bruno Korst, P.Eng. Assistant Professor, Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering Moderator – Larry Masotti, President, Minerva Canada
4:15	Closing Remarks	Dawn Kilkenny, Vice Dean, Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, University of Toronto & Larry Masotti
4:30	Adjournment	