

University of Windsor – MINERVA Canada Safety Forum

Friday, May 2, 2025
University of Windsor
Ed Lumley Centre for Engineering Innovation, Room 1101

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:30	Registration / Networking / Breakfast	Refreshments served
8:50	Welcoming / Opening Remarks	Dr. Sreekant Das, Associate Dean – Research and Graduate Studies, University of Windsor
8:55	Introduction to Minerva & Forum Objectives	Larry Masotti, Minerva Canada
9:00	Mark Galvin	President and CEO, YQG
9:45	Break	Refreshments served
10:00	Business Case for Health and Safety and what it takes to excel, and create the right safety culture	NextStar Energy
11:00	Psychology Safety – Why it matters...	Kyle Brykman, Odette School of Business, University of Windsor
11:45	Minerva H&S student teaching modules – introduction on content and use	Jacqueline Stagner, Faculty of Engineering, University of Windsor
12:15	Break	Luncheon served
1:15	Importance of Health and safety education and current issues – regulatory perspective	Sandro Perruzza, Ontario Society of Professional Engineers
2:00	Minerva Initiatives	Tony Pasteris, Minerva Canada
2:45	Break	Refreshments served
3:00	What’s missing in H&S education – perspective from recent grad student	Sandra Mooney, Magna
3:30	Panel Discussion – H&S in Curriculum – challenges, opportunities, next steps	Facilitated by Jacqueline Stagner
4:15	Closing Remarks	Larry Masotti, Minerva Canada
4:30	Adjournment	